DETAILED ACTION

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action or the MPEP.

Double Patenting

Claims 28-37 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 51 of copending Application No. 09/907,931.

Claims 28-37 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,629,936.

Regarding the double patenting rejections, see the comments set forth in the previous rejections.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed July 13, 2005 have been considered. It is unclear what applicant is trying to state. However, the examiner points out that if Jeter reservoir 11 can be considered a collection tube (see figure 3), it is not connected to a ductal access probe. Reservoir 11 is connected to the feed septum 14, not any probe 13a or 13b. This contrast can be readily appreciated by examining applicant's figure 3. Collection tubes (syringes 60) are connected to the ductal access probes.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 28-37 would be allowed if terminal disclaimers were filed as suggested above.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
